These Octopus are pretty boring and aren't up to very much...

However Octopus are famously good at multitasking!

Please draw below an Octopus performing 8 incredible tasks at the same time!

This summer, on Earth, the Olympic Games will be held in Paris.

Next month, on the Moon, the Space Olympics will take place.

Please draw 5 events that will be happening as part of the Space Olympics.

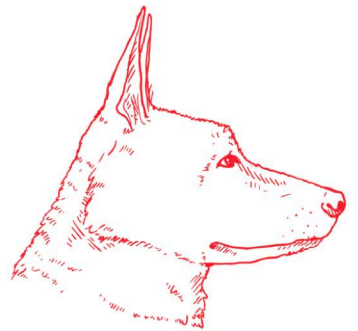

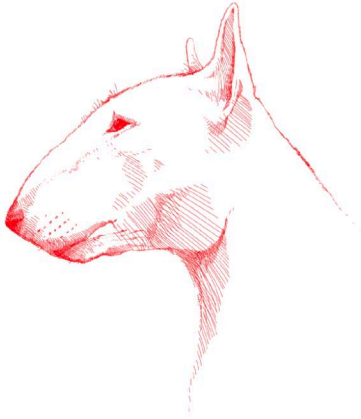

Congratulations! You've opened the UK's first competitive dog grooming salon!

Please give your salon a name:

Now please groom these dogs into something *spectacular*
